Summer Reading is almost Here!

Summer is coming, and so is the Vicksburg District Library's awesome Summer Reading Program! The first day to register for the Summer Reading Program is Monday, June 15. This year's summer reading is about super-heroes: "Every Hero Has a Story" Learn more about all the fun we will have inside this newsletter, or stop in to the library to talk to a librarian or grab a flyer.

We can't wait to see you this summer!

Book Sale

Don't forget to get your book donations into the library soon!

The last date to donate books for the annual book sale is Friday, May 15th.

We cannot accept book after that date. The volunteers that run the book sale use that time to sort and organize for the sale.

Thank you all so much for your support and donations throughout the year.

All proceeds from the annual book sale are the sole source of funding for the purchase of books and materials for the children's collection.

Tech Tutoring

Walk In or By Appointment

Troubled by tablets? Worried about Word? Looking to join Facebook or Twitter? Whatever your technology needs, call us for an appointment or drop in– we're glad to help you figure it out!

Volunteer Opportunities

Summer Reading is fast approaching, and Mrs. W could use a few (or many!) good volunteers to help present all the fantastic programs that she has planned. If you're able to help at an event, or interested in learning more, contact Mrs. W at the library at 269-649-1648 or swilloughby@vicksburglibrary.org

The Library Online

Check us out online! Visit the library's website at <http://www.vicksburglibrary.org> for more information about services and programs, to search our catalog, or to view your account and renew books. You can also request items be held for you or view lists of helpful links and electronic databases. You can connect to the Michigan Electronic Library (MEL) to order items to be sent to the Vicksburg District Library for you that we don't have in our collection.

Library Closures

The library will close on Monday, May 25 in celebration of Memorial Day.

Sunday, May 17th will be the last Sunday we are open before we start summer hours. During the summer, we are closed on Sundays.
